Amendments to the Specification:

Please amend the specification as shown on the following marked up and clean copies:

MARKED UP COPY OF THE PARAGRAPH BEGINNING AT LINE 4 AND ENDING
WITH LINE 9 ON PAGE 1

The present invention relates to a corrugated tray, erected from a unitary paperboard blank, for the holding, stacking and transporting of items such as beverage cans and bottles. In particular, the present invention relates to a corrugated tray with inwardly positioned end walls extending upright from centrally located offset score lines in opposing ends of the tray, such that 5 the dimensional space within the tray is optimized, and unwanted shifting of ~~by~~ items transported within the tray is minimized.
